vice at the BBC. I did. It was a very nice experience. Esther Pullis was very attentive. Everyone was very friendly. Dave Howarth, Cedric and Thelma Chubb, Thelma Markey. I saw Laura Rude and Beatrice Bartholomew, among others. Rev. Pullis gave a report on the Post Office meeting and mentioned me by name. When I got home I was asked for and gave a complete report on the service. I noted, with pleasure, that a P. P. Bliss hymn was on the program: "Wonderful Words of Life." After lunch/dinner, RTP and I went to City Hall and worked on 301. RTP put back the mouldings around the windows. Tomaine and I sanded and spackled. We worked for three hours and that was that. RTP drove me home and I bathed and got the 9:35 P.M. bus.

3:13 P.M. Pete Smith called and I was not at my desk. I called him back at 4 P.M.: 717-282-2100, extension 3655. I told him that the 20th and 27th of January were too early for a Gravity Railroad presentation at St. Joseph's. He said fine. We agreed that the 3rd of February would be OK. He said that that would be OK and that putting off the presentation until the 3rd of February would allow him time to do publicity on the meeting. I told him that I would send him details by the 19th of January. I sent him some details in my letter of January 18th8. He reported that St. Joseph's would provide refreshments for the meeting.

January 11, 1983, 5:50 P.M.

JVB called to say that Jean Colville had called and she had reported that "Robert has had his first dip into the troubled political waters of Carbondale," meaning the meeting on Thursday, January 6th. JVB also reported that Jean said that she had spoken with an Attorney Brown who told here that we can get a Federal injunction to stop the Postal Service from building a new building. Jean wants me to get a petition going and then to take the U. S. Postal Service into Federal court. During our phone conversation, JVB referred to the portable radios that one sees many kids walking around with as "ghetto blasters."

January 12, 1983, 4:45 P.M.

JVB called and I was not at my desk. At 5:35 P.M. he called again. He reported that there were three articles in THE CARBONDALE NEWS and did I want him to read them to me. He did. Page one article by Wroblewski, page 4 editorial, page 10 notice of CHS meeting on 1-20-1983. How nice of JVB to call and keep me informed on what is going on on the home front.
